CRUSHING DEFEAT

Giving Them Two Out of Three

the Locals This Afternoon-Good Game Promised.

The Augustas beat the locals all over vesterday by a score of 7 to 0. It is unnecessary to make any comments as to how it was done, but that it was fairly done there is no doubt; the locals "could not hit Kilroy," and his support was strictly par excellence; it could not have strictly par excellence; it could not have been better. There was only one error made by the visitors, and that was a bad throw by Kilroy to first; the locals made five errors—and bad ones too—while the hits of the visitors were timely ones. If the Augustas play ball hereafter like they did in yesterday's game, we predict that the Atlantas will be left before the season ends. The Memphis team were in "very hard luck" yesterday, O'Brien being left out of the game, and Crowell, although he pitched hard and worked hard, did not have his "fancy curve" in good working order. The attendance was large, being about 1500 strong, but we fear that notwithstanding the fine playing of that notwithstanding the fine playing of e visitors, the poor and up-hill playing of the locals very much displeased them. To day we will try the Macons and hope our boys won't get left, and they will try FIRST INNING.
